

LEEDS METROPOLITAN UNIVERSITY

ENHANCING MIDDLE LEADERSHIP

Middle Leader in Education?

Want development and masters credits?

Complete the new Enhancing Middle Leadership Programme

Enhancing Middle Leadership is a master's level programme for aspiring, new and established middle leaders in Education settings which offers 20 credits from Leeds Metropolitan University.

As part of the Masters in Teaching and Learning Programme through Leeds Metropolitan University, Carnegie Leaders in Learning can offer a 20 credit module Leading, Managing and Collaboration. Participants will carry out an on-line leadership diagnostic and produce an evaluation action plan for development during the programme.

On completion of the programme participants will write a reflective piece about the leadership development undertaken (20 credits).

LEEDS
METROPOLITAN UNIVERSITY

Carnegie
Leaders in Learning

COMPONENTS OF THE PROGRAMME

Components	Dates	Times
Introductory session: Introducing coaching and taking the first steps towards planning individual professional development. (This session is for both participants and their coaches.)	26 January 2012	16:00 – 19:00
Development session 1: Investigating leadership styles and attributes; planning and managing change.	27 February 2012	15:00 – 19:00
Development session 2: Understanding personal styles; developing team-working and collaboration.	13 June 2012	15:00 – 19:00
Celebration session: Sharing personal development through the programme and the impact this has had at school.	08 November 2012	16:00 – 19:00

The Master's level accreditation requirements are addressed throughout the programme.

We encourage in-school coaches to attend both the Introductory and Celebration sessions.

Optional elements:

- 2 Writing Support Workshops . These will take place on 12th March and 9th July 16:00 - 19:00.
- a Coaching and Facilitation workshop, open to both participants and those supporting participants with their development. This will take place on the 08 March 2012 16:00 – 19:00

All the above sessions will be held in room 104 Headingley Carnegie Stand, St Michaels Lane, Headingley, Leeds LS6 3BR

Cost: £750